Executive Summary

Cryptocurrencies and the realm of Decentralized Finance (DeFi) have created a new financial system from which anyone can benefit without regard for constraints or boundaries. Non-fungible Tokens (NFTs) are beginning to demonstrate how they can be used to establish globally distributed communities of like-minded individuals in unprecedented ways.

However, only a small percentage of the world's population has been willing or able to take advantage this far. This has caused some to believe that the world is just for financial elites or established investors. When it comes to the genuine potential of these transformational technologies, this couldn't be further from the truth.

Indeed, the majority of the early pioneers in this sector envisioned a fairer, more egalitarian future enabled by this open permissionless technology. Many successful industry professionals want to see this vision become a reality. This is also the tale of MAMBA Token, as we attempt to transform charitable giving by bringing the power of blockchain technology, DeFi, and NFT opportunities to a sector that needs to benefit the most.

Black Mamba`s primary objectives are philanthropy and social well-being.

From Crypto to the Real World. Be a part of us!

The mission of the organization is to use community action and blockchain technologies to build a global movement that challenges the status quo and makes profit intrinsically linked to positive social impact.

What next?

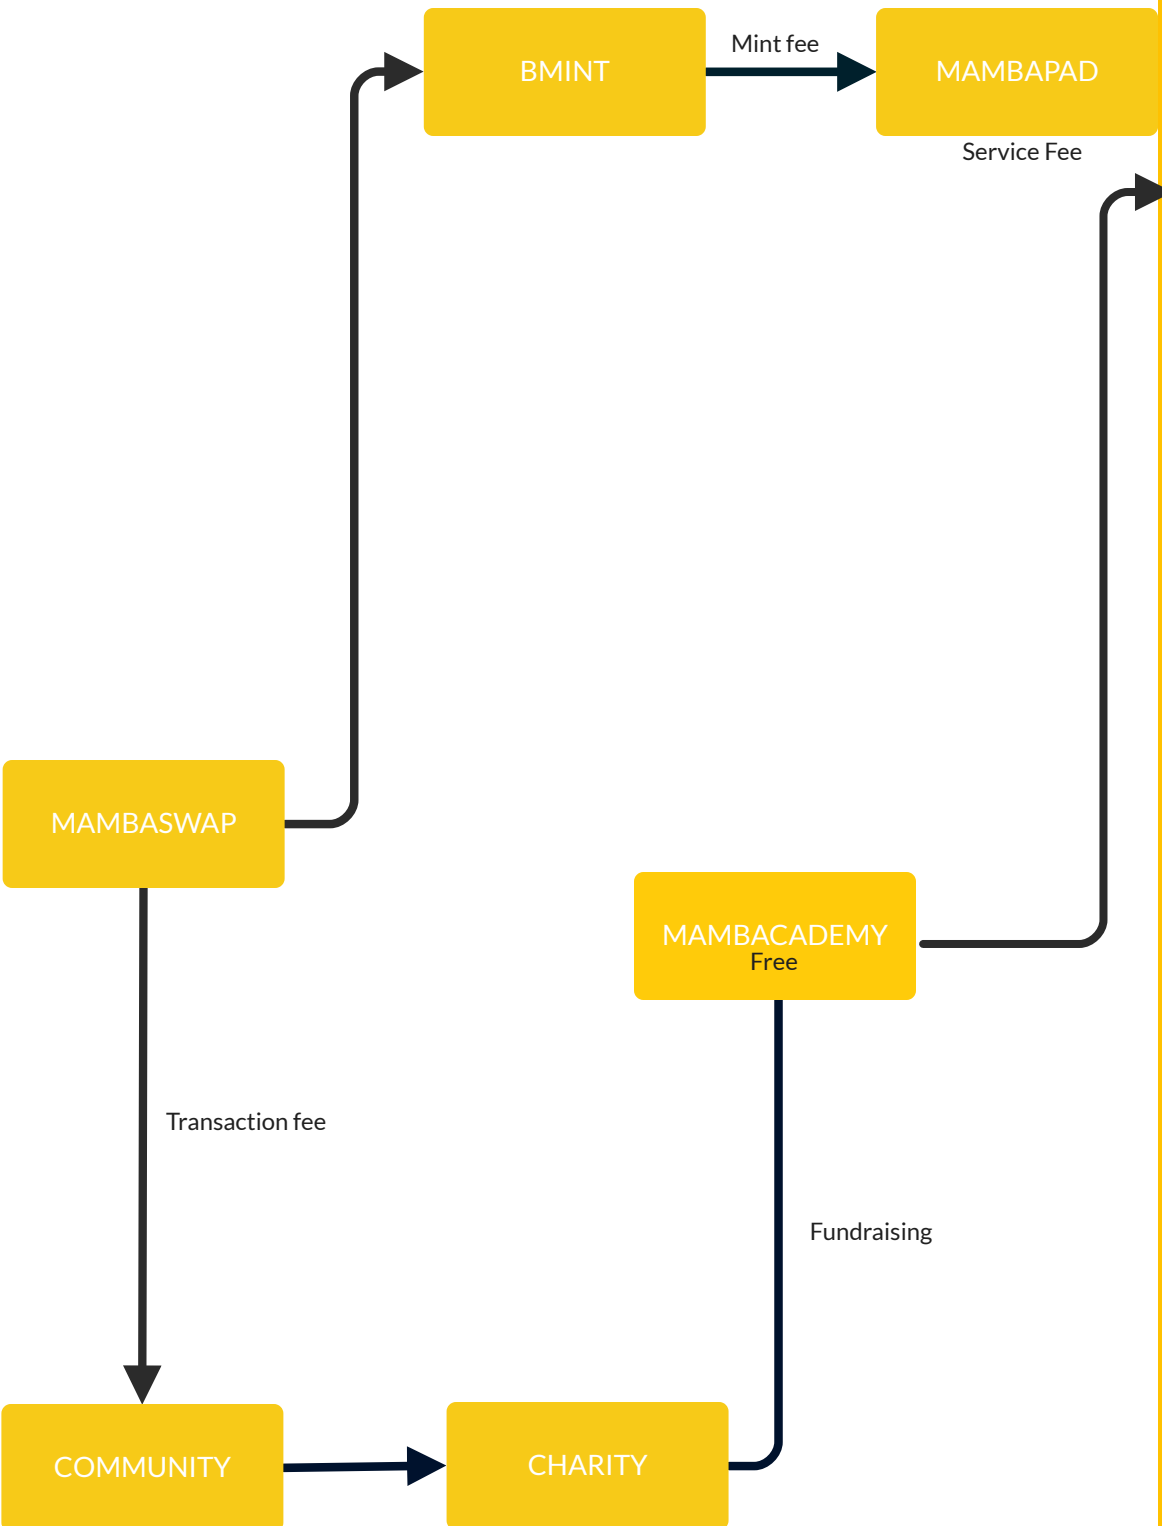

Black Mamba Token aims to be the most important Global Charity Token on the Binance Smart Chain Network. The project will be divided into phases, each with its own charitable cause at its heart. The Black Mamba token listing progresses from token campaign planning and execution to token liquidity via listing on Bogged Finance, Nomics, and PancakeSwap at the outset of the token. Following a technical selection process, currencies are listed. Longer term, to be listed on larger exchanges such as Binance.
